By the QUEEN,

A PROCLAMATION,

For the Publiſhing the Peace, between Her Majeſty, and His moſt Chriſtian Majeſty the French King.

ANNE R.

WHereas a Peace hath been Treated, and Articles of Peace and Commerce have been Concluded at Utrecht, the One and thirtieth Day of March laſt, between Us and His moſt Chriſtian Majeſty the French King, and the Ratifications thereof have been ſince exchanged: In Conformity thereunto, We have thought fit hereby to Command, That the ſame be Publiſhed throughout all our Dominions. And We do Declare to all Our Loving Subjects Our Will and Pleaſure, That the ſaid Articles of Peace and Commerce be obſerved Inviolably, as well by Sea as Land, and in all Places whatſoever, Strictly Charging and Commanding all Our Loving Subjects to take Notice hereof, and to Conform themſelves thereto accordingly.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the 4th Day of May, In the Twelfth Year of Our Reign.

God ſave the QUEEN.

The following Addreſs from the Juſtices of the Peace, &c. of the County of Kent, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Percivall Hart, Eſq; one of the Knights of the Shire; being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of Your Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and Gentlemen of the County of Kent, aſſembled at their General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace held at Maidſtone for the ſaid County, the 14th of April, 1713.

MADAM,

AFter ſo many Glorious Succeſſes in War, it is our greateſt Satisfaction to Congratulate Your Majeſty on Your ſucceſsful Endeavours for the Accompliſhment of ſuch a Peace, which gives Your Allies juſt Occaſion for their grateful Acknowledgements of Your Majeſty's Regard to their Security and reſpective Intereſts; and to Your own Subjects for their new-gain'd Advantages, in Improvement of the Britiſh Trade and Commerce; and the great Honour of Your Majeſty's giving Peace to ſo great a Part of the World, when it became ſo neceſſary, after the longeſt and moſt expenſive War it had ever ſuſtain'd.

There remains nothing, but to make theſe Bleſſings of Peace ſecure and laſting to Your People; for which End Your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs have eminently appear'd in Your great Council of Parliament, as alſo in Your more private Conſultations and Treaties, by which the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover is ſecur'd, to the entire Satisfaction of us and all Your Majeſty's Loyal Subjects, and to the Envy and Diſappointment of thoſe alone, who would make a Merit by their unjuſt Inſinuations againſt Your Majeſty's beſt Subjects, as diſaffected to that Illuſtrious Houſe; for which Imputation there hath not been the leaſt Colour given.

Your Majeſty is pleaſed to Conjure us to calm the Minds of the Unpeaceable; which, in our ſeveral Stations, we ſhall endeavour, for Your Majeſty's, their own, and our Quiet, whatever Protection or Countenance they may hope for, from ſome yet in Power: And we ſhall further endeavour to Compoſe all unreaſonable and Party Rage, inflam'd and kept alive (in great meaſure) from the Licentiouſneſs of the Preſs, which lately hath Spawn'd ſo many Blaſphemous and Republican Pamphlets and Libels; which, we hope, our Repreſentatives in Parliament will take ſome ſpeedy and effectual Care to ſuppreſs. That Your Majeſty may quietly enjoy the Fruits of Your Peace, and need no other Guaranty, under God's Providence, but the Loyalty and Affection of all Your Subjects (to which Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Goodneſs ſo juſtly entitle You) is the Prayer of Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the County of Durham, was preſented to Her Majeſty by William Lambton, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Biſhop of Durham.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions for the County of Durham, the 15th of April, 1713.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

AMong the many Inſtances that Your Majeſty has been pleas'd to give of Your Care and Concern for Your People, none more juſtly claim our Thanks and Acknowledgements, than the Glorious and Honourable Peace, which Your Majeſty, notwithſtanding the Oppoſition abroad, and the Difficulties occaſion'd by a Faction at home, has ſo lately obtain'd for us.

The being deliver'd from a bloody and expenſive War, after all the juſt Ends thereof were accompliſh'd, the Terms of Peace being ſo advantageous to Your Subjects, who have ſo largely Contributed to the Expence of the War, and the procuring ſafe and proper Barriers for the ſeveral Potentates in Your Alliance, are Circumſtances ſo agreeably ſurpriſing, that we cannot ſufficiently admire Your Majeſty's Juſtice and Goodneſs in effecting ſo great and good a Work.

Nor do we with leſs Thankfulneſs acknowledge Your Majeſty's Concern for ſecuring the Proteſtant Succeſſion, ſo eſſential to the Preſervation of our Religion

Religion and Liberty, which You have been pleased to shew upon so many Occasions, that none but Persons of the worst Designs, Enemies to Peace, and to our Constitution, will pretend to call it in question.

That Your Majesty may long live to enjoy the Advantages You have gain'd by so Prudent a Conduct; and that You may be as Glorious in Peace, as Your Arms have been Successful in War; and that the same Providence which has placed You upon the Throne of Your Ancestors may long continue You to Sway the British Scepter, in the full Enjoyment of all the Blessings of Peace, guarded by the Loyalty and Affections of all Your Subjects, is the sincere Wish and Prayer of Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the City of Durham, was presented to Her Majesty by Thomas Conyers, and Robert Shafto, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Bishop of Durham.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, and Commonalty of the City of Durham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AFTER so many Congratulations for Your Majesty's great Successes in War, we now presume with Joy to Address You for the much greater Triumphs of an honourable Peace.

How glorious a Cessation was this! How few Conquerors have stop'd in the full Career of their Victories! But Your Majesty from being the most Eminent Part of the War, has condescended to become the chief Instrument of Peace; obliging even those Enemies, whom before You had so often subdued, to comply with Your Demands.

Nor have Your Conquests Abroad been the greatest Difficulty You had to contend with, the Obstinacy of such as dissembled the Blessing, having added to the Task of saving both us, and them, from the worst of Enemies, themselves.

Your Majesty has not only thus Bless'd us, in removing all Obstacles by Your unparallel'd Wisdom, and that of Your Ministry, but You have also secured our Happiness to Posterity, in a Protestant Succession, which as it is made certain, in Reversion to the Illustrious House of Hanover, so we dutifully wish it may be long in the Expectation.

Thus, Madam, You have entirely fixed the Hearts of all Your loyal Subjects, and we doubt not but even those who were averse to the Peace, will be well pleased to enjoy the Advantage thereof.

May the giver of Peace Crown Your Majesty's Reign with Peace and Happiness, and return to Your Self, the Blessings procured for Your People, are the hearty Prayers of, Madam, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Corporation of Buckingham, was Presented to Her Majesty by Thomas Chapman, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament; being Introduced by the Rt. Hon. William Lord Cheyne, Viscount New-Haven, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the County of Bucks.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Corporation of Buckingham, in the County of Bucks.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Bailiff and Capital Burgesses of Your Corporation of Buckingham, do with all Humility beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the happy Accomplishment of the most glorious Undertaking, the procuring a General Peace for Europe, and to return our most humble Thanks for the peculiar Care You have been pleas'd to take of Your own Subjects.

And though, Madam, Your most indulgent Reign has furnished us with many Occasions of acknowledging Your Royal Goodness and Concern for the Welfare of Your People; yet, give us leave to say, that without the Blessing you have at this time obtained for us (after that prodigious Consumption of Blood and Treasure dreined from us by a tedious and unequal War) Your Kingdoms must have still laboured under Difficulties, which nothing but a grateful Sense of Your Majesty's Endeavours, and the Expectation of this Success, could have made Supportable.

This, Madam, after the Obstructions You have met with, must convince Mankind, that there is no Enterprize too great for You to Undertake, and no Undertaking too great to be Executed by such a Ministry as upon this Occasion had the Honour to receive Your Majesty's Commands, and leaves us no room to doubt, but that under the same Conduct, Britain will soon be restored to a flourishing State.

And as the perfect Friendship between Your Majesty and the Illustrious House of Hanover (notwithstanding the vain Attempts to divide You) is a convincing Proof of Your Justice and Their Prudence; so it lays a sure Foundation for the future Happiness of Your Kingdoms, by Securing a Protestant Succession whensoever Heaven shall please to call You to the Possession of an eternal Crown of Glory.

The following Address from the Town and Port of Sandwich, was presented to Her Majesty by Josiah Burchett and John Michell, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, Common Council, Freemen, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Port of Sandwich in Kent.

PErmit us, Best of Princes, most humbly to approach Your Sacred Majesty with our hearty Congratulations upon the Success of Your pious Care to restore Peace to Christendom: A Blessing the most acceptable, since it puts an end to a long, expensive and bloody War, and brings with it the happy Prospect of a beneficial encrease of Trade and Navigation.

As none of Your Majesty's loyal Subjects can be more truly sensible than we are, of the great Happiness they have enjoy'd under Your Royal Administration, so cannot we sufficiently acknowledge the Zeal, and indefatigable Pains, of those able Ministers, who (notwithstanding the many and unjustifiable Obstructions they met with from disaffected Persons) have assisted Your Majesty in the carrying on and finishing so glorious a Work.

As God hath hitherto, in a wonderful manner, prosper'd all Your Majesty's Endeavours for the Welfare of Your Subjects, so shall we humbly pray, that his Divine Majesty will be pleased to bless You with a long and happy Reign over us.

And as we will always make it our chiefest Study to express a sincere Duty and Zeal to Your Majesty's Service, so shall it be our particular Care to make Choice of such Persons to Represent us in Parliament, whose Principles are entirely conformable to Monarchical Government, the Church of England, as by Law Established, and to the Succession of the Illustrious House of Hanover, when it shall please God to call Your Majesty (tho' long may it be) to the Blessing of an everlasting Crown. We are, my it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most dutiful, most loyal, and most obedient Subjects and Servants.

The

The following Addreſs from the City of New Sarum was preſented to Her Majeſty by Robert Pitt, Eſq; One of the Repreſentatives for that City; being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer, and attended by ſeveral Gentlemen of the County of Wilts, at the requeſt of Charles Fox, Eſq; their other Repreſentative, who by reaſon of his Indiſpoſition, was not able to attend himſelf, according to the deſire of the ſaid City.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, having always borne a grateful Part, in acknowledging the glorious Succeſſes of Your Arms during the War; do, with a hearty Joy and Affection, beg leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the more valuable Bleſſing of Peace, now ſo happily concluded, which as it has been effected by Your Majeſty's wiſe Conduct, we are perſuaded is not only Honourable and Advantageous to Your own People, but Safe, Juſt and Reaſonable for all Your Allies.

The ſteddy Reſolution Your Majeſty has ſhewn in attaining the happy End of Your pious Endeavours, thro' the many Difficulties contrived to Obſtruct the ſame, requires our greateſt Applauſe; and we cannot alſo but do Juſtice to the Merit and Fidelity of thoſe who have had the Honour to ſerve Your Majeſty in perfecting this great Work.

The many groundleſs Fears and Jealouſies which have been factiouſly invented and induſtriouſly ſpread abroad, with Deſign to alienate Your People's Affections, and to bring Reproach upon Your Majeſty's happy Adminiſtration and Government, give us a juſt Abhorrence of ſuch wicked Practices, when we have ſo eminent Proofs of Your tender Regard and Concern, not only for our preſent Happineſs, but of our Poſterity; alſo by the Care You have taken to ſecure the Intereſt and Friendſhip of the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, which is the greateſt Bleſſing (next to thoſe we enjoy under Your Majeſty) that can attend us, and for which, future Ages will be obliged to bleſs Your Majeſty's glorious Memory.

The following Addreſs from Jamaica was preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governor, Council, and General Aſſembly of Jamaica.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor, Council, and General Aſſembly of Your Majeſty's Iſland of Jamaica, having had the Happineſs to ſee the Terms of Peace which Your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to Communicate to Your Parliament, humbly beg Leave, with the reſt of our Fellow-Subjects, in the plaineſt but ſincereſt manner, to Congratulate Your Majeſty thereupon.

We preſume not, Madam, to judge of the Intereſts of Empires or States, nor to determine future Events; but we cannot refrain from expreſſing our Joy, as well as our Gratitude to Your Majeſty (tho' in Words much inferior to what we feel in our Breaſts) at the Proſpect of a Peace, which appears to us ſo Equitable, ſo Honourable and ſo Advantageous; nor can we conceive what room there is left to any, for Fears or Jealouſies, whilſt Your Majeſty, whom the Almighty has made his Inſtrument, in reſcuing Nations from Slavery, is concerting the means of their Security.

The Immortal Honour Your Majeſty has acquired in ſo ſucceſsful a War, could only have received an Addition by the Eſtabliſhment of ſuch a Peace, wherein You may be truly ſaid to gain the greateſt Victory, in putting a ſtop Your ſelf to the Torrent of Your own Succeſſes, and in the midſt of Triumphs, as ſoon as Tyranny and Oppreſſion are ſubdued, by laying aſide the Terror of Your Arms, to give the World the pleaſing Delights of Liberty in Peace.

For our Parts, Madam, as we are deeply ſenſible we owe our Safety, during the Courſe of a long and bloody War, to the Protection Your Majeſty has been pleaſed to give us; ſo we have entire Confidence and Satisfaction in that Proviſion we humbly hope Your Majeſty has already made for our Security and Proſperity in a Peace; and for this and all the other Bleſſings of Your Majeſty's Reign, we can only continue our Loyalty (that is to ſay, our Duty) to Your Sacred Perſon, and our Prayers to God to grant Your Majeſty all deſirable Felicity upon Earth, and, for Your Peoples ſake, a late Retirement to his Glory.

The following Addreſs from the City of Edinburgh, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Patrick Johnſton, their Repreſentative in Parliament; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Finletter.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

ALBEIT we lie at a diſtance from the Seat of Government, and far removed from Your Majeſty's Perſon, yet the Bleſſings of Your auſpicious Reign are ſo diffus'd, that they reach even us, and the outmoſt Parts of Your Majeſty's Dominions. It is therefore from the deepeſt Senſe of Duty and Gratitude, that we preſume with the firſt of Your loyal Subjects to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the happy Succeſs of a long expected Peace, now at length brought about by the Bleſſing of Heaven upon Your Majeſty's Endeavours.

And we have the greateſt Satisfaction to obſerve Your Majeſty's kind Care, in conſulting the Good of all Your Subjects, particularly by extending the Trade of theſe Kingdoms beyond any thing that former Times can boaſt of: Neither has Your Majeſty been unmindful of the juſt Intereſts of Your Allies, to whom, in the whole Courſe of the Treaty, the moſt tender Regards have been had: And therefore, as it is chiefly by Your Majeſty's Mediation that Janus's Gate is now ſhut, ſo we hope it ſhall not be in the Power of Your inveterate Enemies once more to open the ſame.

As we are fully perſuaded that the Happineſs of all Your Subjects depends upon a perfect Friendſhip betwixt Your Majeſty and the Houſe of Hanover, ſo Your Care of the Succeſſion in that Illuſtrious Houſe, is a convincing Proof of Your utmoſt Zeal for the Proteſtant Religion, ſeeing by this Expedient, the ſame will be tranſmitted to lateſt Poſterity.

And now that Your Majeſty has overcome ſo many Difficulties, in bringing this great Work to a happy Iſſue, as it lays upon us the ſtrongeſt Obligations to Loyalty and Obedience, ſo alſo earneſtly to pray, That it would pleaſe the Almighty to Shour down upon Your Majeſty the Beſt of his Bleſſings, and preſerve You, not only to main ain our religious and civil Liberties, according to the Articles of Union, but alſo to enjoy the Fruits of Your indefatigable Labours in the Eſtabliſh'd Peace of Your Subjects. That after You have long Reign'd here in their Hearts and Affections, Your Majeſty may Reign with GOD in Glory for ever. May it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most humble, most faithful and most loyal Subjects and Servants.

The following Address from the Borough of Bodmyn, was presented to Her Majesty by the Hon. Francis Robartes and the Hon. Russel Robartes, Esqrs; their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Town-Clerk, Magistrates, and Common-Councilmen of the Borough of Bodmyn, in the County of Cornwall.

May it please Your Majesty,

AFTER the Glorious Victories gain'd by Your Majesty's Arms during the late War, we humbly join with the rest of Your Majesty's Loyal Subjects, to Congratulate the Success of Your Endeavours for obtaining a Peace.

Your Majesty's affectionate Care for the future Safety of Your People, in establishing the Protestant Succession, we most thankfully acknowledge, and are sensible the perfect Friendship between Your Majesty and the House of Hanover, will much contribute to it.

That Your Majesty may enjoy many Happy and Peaceful Days, is the Prayer of Your Majesty's truly Faithful and Loyal Subjects.

Which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Lisbon, April 25. N. S. The Duke de Codaval hath left the Court in Disgust, which it is said proceeds from the King's having declared, contrary to the Advice of his Council, that his Natural Brother should marry a Lady of the Family of Oronches. As soon as this Marriage is consummated, he is to be created a Duke, with the Title of Highness. All the Relations of the Oronches have been at Court, to thank his Majesty for this great Honour. We have received Advice from Cadiz, that seven Ships of the Flotilla, which went from Spain in the Year 1711, were arrived there; and it is supposed the other two are got into the Groyne. The nine Sail are said to be worth Twelve Millions of Dollars, in Money and Goods.

Madrid, May 1. N. S. Don Fernando Figuera, who is to go to Genoa in Quality of Envoy-Extraordinary from his Catholick Majesty, is nominated Governor to the Prince of Asturias. Two Days ago Monsieur Orry arrived here from Paris, and was met out of Town by the Chief Ministers and Grandees. The Execution of Count Bergeick's Project for regulating the Finances, was deferred till his arrival. Count Bergeick hath set up a Manufactory of Cloth at Valdemora, four Leagues from hence. He hath brought Workmen from Flanders, and to encourage them the King hath dispatch'd an Order, that they shall be exempt from all Civil Jurisdiction. Don Lewis de Mirabel, one of the Council of Castile, is appointed Overseer of it. The Duke de Linares, Vice-Roy of Mexico, hath desired Leave to come home for the Recovery of his Health. The Prince of Sancto-bueno having been very much indispos'd o the Gout at Port St. Maries, the Physician have advised him not to venture out of Europe, from whence it is thought the Duke de Varaguas will be constituted Vice-Roy of Mexico or Peru, instead of Navarre. His Majesty hath made a Present of a Sword set with Diamonds, of a considerable Value, to Monsieur Guerchy, a French Lieutenant-General, in requital of his good Services. The Duke de Montalto hath acquainted their Majesties, that he hath concluded a Match between his Grandson the Duke of Fernandina and the Grand-daughter of the Duke of Medina-Sidonia, which is approved of. A Courier from Catalonia having brought Advice, that Mareschal Staremberg had received the Emperor's Order for evacuating that Province, the Duke de Popoli is preparing for his departure thither, and the Intendant of his Army hath already received Three hundred thousand Crowns to put them in motion. They write from Biscay, that they have cut down Wood there for building six large Ships, and three Frigats.

Hamburgh, May 9. N. S. We have received Advice, that the Treaty for the Surrender of Torningen being broke off, by reason that the King of Denmark insisted to be sole Master of it as soon as it should be evacuated by the Swedes, without admitting any of the Troops of Holstein into the Garrison; the Trenches before the Place were opened on the 6th without much Loss. On the 11th it is to be Bombarded, according to the Scheme of General Scholten, who proposes in Four and twenty Hours to throw in Eleven hundred Bombs of One hundred and fifty Pound Weight. On the 6th, at Night, Count Steinbock made a Sally on the Muscovites, and killed Seven hundred of them: But the next Day they returned to the Charge, and repulsed the Swedes with the Loss of Five hundred Men. Notwithstanding the King of Denmark's Orders to the Muscovites, who are coming from Pomerania, not to enter Holstein, they continue their March with great Expedition towards Frederichstadt. His Danish Majesty hath sent a Message to Baron Goertz, requiring him to be gone immediately from Husum.

Utrecht, May 12. N. S. On the 10th the Ministers of France, and three of those of the States-General, had a Conference in the Presence of Her Majesty's Plenipotentiaries, at the Lord Privy Seal's House; where they agreed to defer the exchange of their respective Ratifications, till the return of their Collegues from the Hague; and at the same time the French Ministers delivered to those of Great Britain the Act whereby the Elector of Bavaria yields the Spanish Netherlands to the House of Austria. Yesterday Morning the Ministers of France and Prussia met at the Earl of Strafford's, and exchanged the Ratifications of their Treaty of Peace, and afterwards the Queen's Plenipotentiaries had a Conference with Baron Kirchner, the Emperor's Minister. Last Night the Plenipotentiaries of the States-General returned from the Hague, and had a Meeting this Morning with those of France at the Lord Privy Seal's House, where the respective Ratifications of their Treaties of Peace and Commerce were exchanged. This Afternoon the Ministers of the States-General met those of France at Mare-hal d'Uxelle's Houſe, in order to ſettle the Evacuation of the Places which are to be yielded up on both Sides within fifteen Days after the Date of the exchange of the Ratifications, and it was agreed, that the manner of executing it ſhould be left to their Generals.

Utrecht, May 16. N. S. On the 13th, the Commiſſioners for ſettling the Trade in the Spaniſh Netherlands had a Meeting at the Lord Privy Seal's Houſe. Yeſterday Baron Kirchner, Plenipotentiary of his Imperial Majeſty, had a Conference with thoſe of France in the Preſence of the Queen's Miniſters, who were this Morning with the French and with Baron Kirchner ſeparately; the latter ſets out to Morrow for Franckfort, and it is uncertain when he will return, but the Miniſters of the Empire have Orders to continue here.
